

Business Greeting Cards

A Great Way to Connect with Your Customers

Why send greeting cards?

- Today's consumers are bombarded with advertising. Greeting cards are a personal way to connect with customers while showing appreciation for their valued business.
- Greeting cards are a feel-good touch point with your audience, and an effective part of your overall contact strategy.
- A great greeting card design will reflect and reinforce your brand identity.
- Every greeting card is a cost-effective promotional tool that will help grow your business.

Why choose our greeting cards?

- More than 65 years in the greeting card industry means we have the expertise you want.
- Enjoy a one-stop shop from design and manufacturing to customization and fulfillment.
- Many of our clients appreciate that all cards and envelopes are made in the USA.
- Get fast shipping due to four strategically located facilities across the country.
- You'll have access to a knowledgeable team that's ready and willing to help at all times.

What makes our products stand out?

- We offer a huge design library with greeting cards to fit every budget.
- Our greeting cards feature premium finishing, such as foil, embossing, laser cutting, die cutting, layers and specialty papers.
- Full-color logo printing on cards and envelopes allows you to highlight your brand perfectly.
- A large selection of our cards feature your company name/logo on the front for optimal branding.
- We have skilled designers on staff to help create completely custom designs for high-volume clients. (Custom designs are available with upgraded treatments like foil or letterpress.)

What will you appreciate most?

- An easy and meaningful way to strengthen current relationships, build new relationships and stay in front of your target audience.
- The ability to communicate in a professional manner with a personal touch using stationery and note cards featuring your name and logo.
- The opportunity to showcase your brand at corporate events with unique options like full-color or foil napkins and coasters featuring your logo and customization.
